NUMBER 47

MATRIMONIAL.

The marriage of Miss Annie Gorey, of this city, to Mr. Joe Connell, of near Millersburg, the bans of which were announced last Sunday will take place at the Catholic church Tuesday, June 12. The Rev. Father Cusack will officiate. Mr. Murray Higgins and Miss Mary Rassenfoss will be the attendants. The happy couple will leave that afternoon for a short bridal trip to Louisville, it being Home Coming week.

Upon their return they will reside at the farm of the groom near Millersburg.

DEATHS.

—Frank Cord, aged 45 years, died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at his residence on Vine street of tuberculosis. Mr. Cord was native of Fleming county and is survived by five children: Mrs. Myrtle Lawrence, Misses Mayme and Alice Cord and John Cord, all of this city. Mrs. Pearl Lawrence, who recently died on Lilliston avenue, of tuberculosis was a daughter of Mr. Cord. The remains will be taken to Elizaville, Fleming county, Sunday, for burial.

—Mrs. W. R. Scott, who was operated on for appendicitis at St. Joseph's Hospital, at Lexington, and reported in Wednesday's Leader as having died, is improving. As we go to press a telephone message from her bedside stated she was resting comfortably.

—Little Miss Annie Wilson, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson, entertained Wednesday about sixty of her little friends in honor of her tenth birthday, at the home of her parents on Mt. Airy avenue. The little folks had a most enjoyable and delightful evening of pleasure and play.

Realistic Scenes.

Scenes of the San Francisco earthquake taken immediately after the city was in ruins and burning, portrayed in all their realistic horror and frightfulness. Don't miss it. Just as true in all its vividness as if you had been present and witnessed the fearful catastrophe. Grand Opera House, one night only, Tuesday, June 5th. Prices 15, 25, and 35 cents.

Piano Tuning.

We have an expert Steinway tuner who will be in this locality for one week. If your piano needs attention send a postal to

RELIGIOUS.

—The pupils of Miss Nellie Buckner's music class will give a piano recital this evening at 8 o'clock.

—At the First Presbyterian Church the pastor, Rev. J. S. Malone, will preach Sunday morning on "The Use of Memorials." Confederate and Federal soldiers are invited to be present.

—Rev. Geo. W. Clark who leave Monday for Middlesboro to conduct a protracted meeting will be accompanied by Mrs. Clark and children who go to spend a short vacation in the mountains.

—Sunday will be Children's Day at the Christian church, the morning sermon being dispensed with. At the evening hour Elder Morgan will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of the Paris High School.

—Rev. G. W. Clark, pastor of the Baptist church, will celebrate the first anniversary of his pastorate Sunday. At the evening service the theme will be "Revival Prerequisite." Monday Rev. Clark will leave for Middlesboro, where he will conduct a two weeks revival. Rev. Mr. Clark during his residence and pastoral work of a year has endeared himself to the members of his congregation and citizens whose pleasure it has been to form his acquaintance, as a Christian gentleman, earnest and sincere in the work of his Master, to the church to whom he has consecrated his labors, his work has been successful and harmonious and the congregation with his assistance are now endeavoring to build a new house of worship.

High School Commencement.

The commencement exercises of the Paris White High school will be held at the Grand Opera House Thursday evening, June 7th, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Hinnitt, of Danville, will deliver an address to the graduates. Prof. J. A. Sharon will present the diplomas. The graduates request their friends who wish to send presents to present same at their homes and not at the opera house.

STOCK AND CROP.

—Monday will be county court day.

—W. D. McIntyre sold to Louisville parties 18,000 pounds of wool at 31½ cents per pound.

—Strawberries coming in since since the copious showers of a week ago are the finest for years.

—Field corn is doing nicely, and with the plows running, damage by the cut worms has been reduced to minimum.

—Bluegrass has freshened up since the rains and many fields thought to be worthless will produce a fair crop of seed.

In Harrison county, George Duckworth reports foal of a mare mule last week, that measured 3 feet 8 inches at time of birth.

—James Weil shipped from Maysville, Thursday, to Buffalo, N. Y., nineteen carloads of extra fine cattle that had been wintered at a distiller near Maysville.

—Stuart & O'Brien have purchased of Frank P. Bedford from 250 to 300 acres of bluegrass seed for $2.25 and of Frank (Hickey) Clay 250 acres at the same price. The seed is thin except in the woodland where it is fairly good. Seed on open land will do to gather about the latter part of next week.

—Only a small per cent. of the tobacco crop has been set. Plants which before the rain were too small to set, have shown rapid growth and are now being set with planters. Very few farmers have plants for sale and as there is considerable demand argues for a shortage in acreage.

Meadows show considerable improvement since the rains and many fields considered too short to recover have bounded forward and promise a good yield of hay.

Highly Complimented.

At Millersburg Thursday evening the M. M. I. elocution class presented the five act drama entitled "By Force of Impulse." Miss Eliabeth Allen, of Millersburg, who was the charming guest of friends during the Conclave, participated in the cast. Jeff Elgin, Jr., of this city, who was one of the graduates acquitted himself creditably. Mr. Elgin has shown aptitude in all departments of college work and military discipline and was the recipient of many beautiful presents among which was a handsome gold watch and fob presented by his mother.
